Answer each of the following questions in a typed document. Attach this to the front before you turn it in. Please double-space, use complete sentences, and your best grammar, spelling, etc.

1. List the main characters of your work.

2. In at least three to five sentences, describe the main character of your work. If there is not one main character, describe the main figures.

3. Summarize the plot of your work in at least eight to ten sentences, making sure to include the most important events from the beginning, middle, and end of the work.

4. Explain the theme, or author's message about life/humanity, in at least four sentences. Remember that when writing about a theme, you take a step out of the plot and characters of the novel and focus on a more universal application.
